LA PANNE, Belgium (via Parin). 4. 18.—The Belgische Standardt. Mished here, says a terrible bossfront Saturday and Sunday nights. The firing was especially delent near Dismude and Ypres.

This bombardment was the prelude to an attempt by the Germans to break the Belgian lines. The Belgian artillery returned the fire, shelling the smunication trenches and seattering his infantry as they leaped from the trenches. A second attack in a smaller scale also was repulsed. This offensive took place in the l/dx-mude region at a spot known as Death's highway." Although mowed down in rows, the Belgians have been holding their line and not-yielding an inch of ground.

"BOLLING GREEN" NEW FASHION TINT: MRS. GALT'S FANCY

Color Predominating in Her Trousseau Already Taken Up by Capital Society.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Naturally the chief interest attending the forthing marriage of President Wilson and Mrs. Norman Galt is now cer tred upon the trousseau which Mrs Galt is assembling for the wedding.

It is rumored in dressmaking circles in Washington and Baltimore that Mrs. Galt has selected as the domi nant note in her gowns a particularly rich but dull shade of green. With ready adaptability, the modistes who invented "Alice Hue" for Alice Roosevelt now Mrs. Longworth, and "Helen Pink" for Heien Taft, have named the new tint selected by the President's Paris War Office Says Three Attacks Were Defeated Northeast of Souchez - Big Battle on at Lihons.

OFFICIAL FRENCH REPORT.

PARIS, Oct. 18 .- Following is the text of the communication issued to-day by the French War Office:

"Three new attacks on the part of the enemy against our positions at Bois-en-Hauche, to the northeast of Soucher, were completely checked last night by curtains of fire, in which both artillery and infantry participated.

"To the south of the River Somme, in the sector of Lihons, there has been almost continual fighting with trench weapons, while in the mean time our batterles directed an effective fire against the German works.

"To the north of Verdun German forces have endeavored to occupy the craters of certain mines recently exploded between the lines. They everywhere have been repulsed.

"Last night witnessed very spirited infantry fire between the trenches in the vicinity of Nomemy. Our artillery in the same region has dispersed groups of pioneers of the enemy, particularly to the east of Eply and near Gremecev and Bioncourt, and it has also bombarded the railroad station at Bla-

OFFICIAL GERMAN REPORT.

BERLIN, (via London) Oct. 18 .- Following is the text of the official statement issued to-day by the German Army Headquarters Staff concerning the war on the western front:

"The trench work northeast of Vermelles, which projects far into the enemy positions, was repeatedly attacked by the English with strong forces. All their attacks failed, with heavy losses, and the trench work remained in our hands,

"Attempts of the French to attack at Tahure were subdued by our fire.

"A new enemy advance, with the object of recapturing lost positions south of Leintrey, was unsuccessful. It cost the French, in addition to sanguinary losses, three officers, seventeen commissioned officers and seventy-three chausseurs as prisoners.

"On Schratzmannele the enemy could not recapture a single foot of ground by his attacks, notwithstanding the use of a considerable quantity of ammunition.

"Yesterday German air squadrons attacked the fortress of Belfort, drove off the enemy aviators and dropped eight bombs on the fortress. A number of fires were observed to have been caused by explosions.

WELCOME TO DR. MAXWELL.

Dr. William H. Maxwell, City Superintendent of Schools, has returned from Coonquit, Me., where he spent the last six months recovering from nervous breakdown. When he entered his office this morning he found it crowded with friends and banked with flowers. There were letters and telegrams of the "Dopey Benny" gang, and Harry Morris, twenty-three, of No. 72 Lewis Street.

The prisoners said they were Harry Blamer, twenty-two, No. 34 Goerck Street; Daniel Ranio, afterward identified as Daniel Guglielmo, a member of the "Dopey Benny" gang, and Harry Morris, twenty-three, of No. 72 Lewis Street.

The prisoners were held for the Grand Jury in $3,000 bail when arraigned before Magistrate Murphy in the Yorkville Court.
